Per Capita Disposition of Fluid Milk Products

An examination of per capita disposition of fluid milk products (FMP) in the Upper Midwest Marketing Area was conducted for 2000. In addition, the Upper Midwest data were compared to similar data for all other Federal orders and California, combined.

Comparison to Other Orders

In 2000, total per capita disposition of FMP in the Upper Midwest market exceeded the average for all other Federal orders and California, as represented in Figure 1. In addition, a much smaller proportion of disposition is in whole milk products in the Upper Midwest Order when compared to all other Federal Orders and California. These findings are consistent with trends that have been observed in the Upper Midwest region in previous years.

Comparison of 2000 Per Capita Disposition

Total per capita disposition of FMP in the Upper Midwest Order averaged 225 pounds in 2000, with 18% of the total disposed of as whole milk products and 82% as lowfat products. This compares to an average of 194 pounds per capita for all other Federal orders and California, with the whole milk portion at 38% and lowfat at 62%.

Upper Midwest Order Trends

The Upper Midwest Order (F.O. 30) was formed on January 1, 2000 by the merger of the former Chicago Regional Order (F.O. 30) and the former Upper Midwest Order (F.O. 68). In Figure 2 on Page 3, data for 1990 through 1999 are estimated by combining the data for the two predecessor orders.

Several changes in per capita disposition of FMP in the Upper Midwest market have taken place between 1990 and 2000.

Total FMP disposition dropped from 243 pounds in 1990 to 225 pounds in 2000, but most of that decline occurred by 1993. In addition, changes in the proportion of whole milk products versus lowfat milk products occurred during the period.

Per capita disposition of whole milk products declined from 48 pounds in 1990 to 40 pounds in 2000. During this time, disposition of lowfat products also declined, dropping from 196 pounds in 1990 to 185 pounds in 2000. Consequently, whole milk products accounted for a smaller portion of total disposition in 2000 than they did in 1990.

* The Upper Midwest Order (F.O. 30) was formed on January 1, 2000 by the merger of the former Chicago Regional Order (F.O. 30) and the former Upper Midwest Order (F.O. 68). In this graph, data for 1990 through 1999 are estimated by combining data for the former Chicago Regional and Upper Midwest Orders.
